

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

Foreign Nationals

ICE Deports Illegal Alien Who Raped 4-year-old

In March 2005, ICE detention and removal officers deported an illegal alien who had been convicted of raping a four-year-old boy in the basement of Mercado Central in Minneapolis, Minnesota. According to court documents, Julio Cesar Rabago-Magana, a citizen of Mexico, asked the boy to help him carry boxes to a basement storeroom. The boy agreed, but when they entered the room, Rabago-Magana sexually assaulted the victim. On Oct. 23, 2002, he pleaded guilty to first-degree criminal sexual conduct. After serving his sentence, ICE special agents arrested Rabago-Magana at his St. Paul home on March 3, 2005. A federal immigration judge ordered him removed March 10 and ICE detention and removal officers deported him to Mexico six days later.

Ukrainian Man Convicted of Inappropriately Touching 13-year-old Mentally Challenged Girl

On Feb. 15, 2005, ICE agents arrested Ukrainian national Mikhail Kleyman, a 68-year-old Solon, Ohio resident and began the process of deporting him. Kleyman was convicted in December 2004 for the offense of Attempted Gross Sexual Imposition and sentenced to probation. According to police reports, Solon Police Department officers responded to a call July 2, 2004 from the Solon Community Center in regard to a report that an adult male had inappropriately touched a 13-year-old mentally challenged girl at the community pool. Officers arrested Kleyman at the scene. Kleyman is currently in ICE custody in Oakdale, Louisiana awaiting deportation.

Mexican National Among 12 Criminal Alien Child Sex Predators Arrested in Santa Clara County

On May 4, 2005, 60-year-old Martin Salgado-Rivera, a Mexican national with a criminal history that spans three decades, was one of eleven foreign child sex predators arrested in southern Santa Clara County, Calif. Salgado-Rivera's criminal past includes convictions for the rape and molestation of several minors. His arrest was part of a daylong operation targeting convicted alien sex offenders who now face deportation.

Jamaican National Rapes 8-Month Old Daughter

In April 2004, ICE agents in Philadelphia placed into removal proceedings a Jamaican national who raped his eight-month-old daughter. The predator caused so much internal damage to the baby that she was forced to undergo reconstructive surgery. Convicted in April 2002, the Jamaican predator is currently serving a 20-year sentence in state prison. Removal proceedings will continue while he serves his term.